RE; FALL IN EXTERNAL VALUE OF THE RUPEE

SHRI ASHOK MITRA (West Bengal): Mr. Vice-Chairman, Sir, you will kindly remember that yesterday, I drew your attention to the steep fall in the external value of the rupee that has been taking place over the past few years. It is because the Government that was in power, last year, in the month of October, allowed the value of the rupee to decline against the dollar by 15 to 20 per cent that we are now facing the predicament of the rise in petroleum prices. If the value of our rupee declines, foreigners gain, we lose. Our goods become cheap to the foreigners and foreign goods become dearer to us.
